GLOSSARY

Academic Renewal: A means whereby a student may petition to have previous college work (grades and credits) excluded from current grade point average, if that work is over three years old and is not reflective of the student's present level of ability or performance.

Academic Year: The regular terms of instruction – not including summer session – are fall and spring semesters.

Advanced Placement: A national testing program whereby high school students may earn college credit by examination.

Advisory: A condition of enrollment that a student is advised to meet before or in conjunction with enrollment in a course or educational program.

Articulation: An agreement where one university agrees to accept a community college course in lieu of a course at the university. Ohlone's articulation agreements with the CSU and UC campuses are available online at <http://www.assist.org>.

ASOC: Associated Students of Ohlone College. All Ohlone College students are members of ASOC and are represented by an elected and appointed student government called the ASOC Council.

Associate Degree: A degree awarded upon completion of a prescribed program of study in a major field at Ohlone College. The Associate of Arts (AA) and Associate of Science (AS) are degrees that may be earned at Ohlone College.

Associate Degree Applicable Courses: Courses are degree applicable unless identified in the College catalog and Class Schedule with the notation "Not applicable to associate degree." Only degree applicable courses are included in calculation of the grade point average and can be applied towards degree, certificate, and General Education requirements.

Audit: An enrollment status in a class where no units or grades are awarded.

Baccalaureate: Refers to the bachelor's degree usually achieved after four years of undergraduate college study. Ohlone College offers the first two years of baccalaureate work in many fields of study.

CAN (California Articulation Number): A statewide means of identifying similar courses for articulation among the community colleges and California State University campuses.

Certificate of Achievement: Indicates completion of a focused occupational program of study and training of 18 or more units.

Certificate of Completion: Indicates completion of a specific occupational program of study and training of less than 18 units, usually in one year.

Class Load: The number of units which a student takes in any given term. A full-time class load is twelve or more units. A standard class load is fifteen units.

Clear Standing: Indicates that a student's grade point average in the previous semester and cumulative grade point average are C (2.0) or better.

Continuing Student: A student who was enrolled at Ohlone College during the most recent previous semester, not including Summer Term.

Corequisite: A condition of enrollment consisting of a course that a student is required to take at the same time as another course. For example: MUS-100 requires that students are enrolled in MUS-100L during the same semester.

Credit: A completed unit of study recorded on the student's official college record.

Credit by Examination: A means of awarding college credit by assessing knowledge achieved elsewhere.
