IV. Presentation from Outside Council

A. Gillian O'Farrell: Education Department Surveys

The U.S. Department of Education has selected Ohlone College to participate in the 2004 National Study of Faculty & Students. It is to determine how families and students meet the costs of school tuition. It will be in the Monitor soon and the surveys will be distributed in April. For more information contact Gillian O'Farrell, Research & Systems Analyst.

B. Brenda Ahnholz: Leadership Communication

Brenda passed out two handouts about the Speech classes that are being offered at Ohlone to enhance speaking/communication and leadership skills from the Speech and Personal Development Department. Speech 112 has transferable units for UC or CSU and it help improve your GPA. The deadline to sign up for the course is the end of this week.

C. Deanna Walston: Parking Permit Fee

Deanna passed out a sheet of what the parking fund look like and will look like after the parking fees increase and another handout of what other local colleges charge for their parking. If there are no increases for next year, there will be a much bigger loss. The proposal is to increase the semester parking permits from $25 to $26 and the daily parking fee from $1.50 to $2 in both upper and lower lots. Deanna is willing to hear any feedback from ASOC. ASOC will vote next week.

D. Swearing in Senators

Clifton called out the senators' names and swore each Senator into office. The new Spring 2004 ASOC Senators are:

Marilou Alejo	Rosary Cordova-Lane	Dina Elkady
Surriya Khan	Shawna Luce	Chalin Luizinho
Venilla Permal	Manjot Saini	Saad Siddiqui
Ricki Sun	Elena Taube	Rashad Walker
Yan Zhang

V. President's Report

- 1.) Clifton welcomed all the new senators into ASOC.
- 2.) AGS is doing a fundraiser selling Valentine candy bags for $1.00
- 3.) Student Ambassador Senior Heather Kwartz is doing a Collegiate Click Drive that raises money for the colleges. The website will give $0.25 to the school with every "click" from a person. For more information, see Heather or visit the website: www.povertyfighters.com.
- 4.) If anyone has to leave the ASOC meeting early, write Clifton or Mara a letter or e-mail to let them know. The executives will decide what is excused.

VI. Advisor's Report

- 1.) Dean Traverick will be having a "Disruptive Students" Meeting on February 11 and he wants ASOC and Student Ambassador Members to participate. To join the committee or go the meetings, see Mara.
- 2.) The Communication to Students Committee will be having a meeting on February 9 at 1:30pm-3pm in room 1216 and they need two students from ASOC. Angie and Rashad volunteered.
- 3.) Mara will post a memo asking for input on how to save the college money
- 4.) Mara needs to update the Spring 2004 ASOC roster for the new Senators. If anyone needs to make any changes, see her.
- 5.) ASOC Retreat is February 21 from 9am-5pm. ASOC member will pair up with the new senators to give them information and bring them up to speed. Please go over the checklist and sign it – turn it to Mara by Tuesday, February 10.

VII. Officer's Report.

- 1.) Chris: ICC met today at 2:30-3pm in room 1216. The ICC Constitution Committee will meet after the ICC Meeting next week followed by another meeting with the Financial Committee. ICC is the Inter Club Council that meets with all the Ohlone Clubs once a week to talk about club business.
- 2.) Flor: Flor thanked everyone who offered their help with the Minutes. If anyone does not want to receive the Minutes in their mailboxes, please speak with Flor. She still needs the class schedules from everyone, new and old senators. Everyone must sign in and out in the sign-in sheet by the ASOC room. Minimum hours in the office are 3 hours.

- 3.) Jason: Jason attended the Facilities Task Force Meeting last week. They discussed about placing the new student services building across the campus and make new parking lots. The Committee will come in next week to the ASOC Meeting, February 10, to discuss their new ideas. They will present their plans to the Board on February 25 and the next Facilities Task Force Meeting next Thursday, February 12.
- 4.) Shasha: Every ASOC member must turn in at least 1 or 2 ID Discount Forms as soon as possible. Shasha is also planning to order ASOC clothing, embroidery, or some design to help advertise ASOC and wear during up-coming events.
- 5.) Katherina: No report until next week.
- 6.) Ritzi: Attended the CalSACC Meeting last week at Chabot College.
 - The slogan for the Regional Rally is “Education is a right, not a privilege”.
 - The rally will be at Cesar Chavez Park in San Jose on February 20 from 12pm-2pm, not 2pm-4pm. They suggest that students should travel by light rail due to limited parking spaces.
 - The March in Sacramento will be on Monday, March 15.
 Ritzi also requested $500 for the Regional Rally and wants to meet with her committee to discuss advertisement and business. The ASOC will vote next week. The next CalSACC Meeting will be at Ohlone on February 27 from 11am-3pm.
