Kunis will also cover his “Blueprint” on pitching, and discuss the process in which he trains his pitchers.

Jeremy is a very well spoken and has done a number of camps, clinics and speaking events over the past 5 years. He is a great person to enjoy a Q&A session with in an open forum setting to answer pitching questions (demonstrations as needed) that young aspiring pitchers might want to ask or have demonstrated from a major league talent like Jeremy who is currently pitching at the top of his game.

If you know of any parents, players, or interested parties wanting to attend, I would appreciate any questions in advance that I can get to Jeremy for him to address as well as a potential head count to anticipate number of attendees. Thank you so much, We look forward to seeing you at this great event.

Yours in Baseball,
