

Ohlone Drops Game to West Valley

Murchison goes Complete Game despite the loss

March 11, 2008

FREMONT, CA – Shane Murchison (5-1) and the Ohlone College Renegades dropped a game to West Valley College on Tuesday afternoon. Murchison who was saddled with the loss, pitched a complete game, and looked strong in the later innings. Murchison had 7 K's in 9 innings pitched while only walking one. The one walk was the lead off runner of the game. West Valley singled the next two batters to jump out to an early 3-0 lead over Ohlone. West Valley would tack on 2 more runs in the 5th inning to make the score 5-0. West Valley pitcher David Meals earned the victory for West Valley.

Murchison pitches first complete game of '08

Ohlone's offense was led by Matt Langseth who went 2-4 with a stolen base. Nick Caravelli and Aaron Plimmer also had one hit a piece for Ohlone. Ohlone had plenty of opportunities to score on the afternoon leaving 8 runners stranded on base. "We had our opportunities to score on them", said Head Coach Tom Kunis. "We were 1-2 timely hits away from making it interesting. Hats off to West Valley, they played good defense, and kept us from scoring".

With the loss Ohlone drops to 2-3 in conference play. Ohlone plays at Canada College this Thursday afternoon in a non-conference match up. Ohlone won the first game of the 2 game set 14-4. Ohlone will pick back up in conference action as they travel to Monterey Peninsula College this Saturday. Game time is at 12:00pm