

OHLONE BATS COME ALIVE IN 12-1 Victory!

Langseth & Miller combine for 6 hits and 4 RBI in Victory

March 29, 2008

FREMONT, CA- The Renegades of Ohlone College (14-14) continued to swing the bats well this afternoon as they defeated City College of San Francisco 12-1. Ohlone knocked out 16 hits on the day. With the loss today San Francisco drops to (11-14) on the year.

The winning pitcher for Ohlone was Cory Krisman. He moves to (2-1) on the season. Krisman allowed just 5 hit over 7 innings of work, while striking out 3 batters and walking 0. Matt Ko was strapped with the loss for San Francisco. He moves to (2-4) Ko, struck out one batter and walked one batter over 6 innings of work.

Krisman moves to (2-1) on the year -

David Luna relieved Krisman in the 8th inning striking out 1 batter and retiring the side in order. The 9th inning was picked up by reliever Mike Annino, who pitched a quality outing striking out 2 ram batters and preserving the victory for the renegades.

The offense was paced by Braxton miller and Matt Langseth. Both hitters were 3-5 on the game. Langseth had a 3b, 2 singles and a stolen base, while Miller had 3 singles for Ohlone. Leftfielder Michael Vandebusch continued to set the table for Ohlone as he has done all season getting 2 hit by pitches, and also hitting 2 singles. Vandebusch also stole a base to add to his team leading total of 18.

Infielder Nick Caravelli, Rich McDowell, and Justin Lunday each had 2 hits, and all three players combined for 3 RBI on the day. Other contributors: Zack Townsend had a single, and Aaron Plimmer had a single and a walk.

Ohlone finishes this three game home stand this Tuesday against Gavilan College. The game is set for 2:00pm