

Renegades Drop First Home Game of Season 8-3 to Skyline

March 10th, 2009

FREMONT, CA - The Ohlone Renegades dropped their first home game of the season today to Skyline College by a score of 8-3. The Renegades had previously won their first 10 games at The Reservation. David Luna received his first loss of the year, (3-1). Luna pitched extremely well on the day but defensive mishaps behind him escalated his pitch count quickly. David's statistics for the day were 6 complete innings pitched, 7 hits, 4 earned runs, 2 walks, and he struck out 5 Skyline batters.

Offensively, the Renegades showed flashes but couldn't quite break through with a timely hit. Steven Ramos and Michael Ussery lead the way, with each player having 2 hits a piece on the day. Cody Foster added a RBI single and Ryan Walterhouse hammered a double down the left field line to score Braxton Miller as well.

The Renegades are now (17-5, 4-2) on the year and are still a top the Coast Pacific Conference. Ohlone will now hit the road for the next three games starting with a trip to Hayward, Ca to take on the Chabot Gladiators on Thursday. Sean Martin, (5-0), will take the mound for the Renegades. First pitch is scheduled for 2:00pm.
