

Renegades win in the 11th at Monterey

Padilla strikes out 4 in the start

March 14th, 2009

MONTEREY, CA - The Ohlone Renegades (19-5, 6-2) defeated the Monterey Peninsula College Lobos on Saturday by a score of 3-2 in 11 innings. Cory Krisman (2-0) earned the victory in relief by throwing 3 innings, gave up 3 hits, 0 runs, 0 walks, and struck out 4 Lobo batters. Roberto Padilla started the game for the Renegades and dominated the Monterey lineup throughout the day, carrying a no hitter into the 7th inning. On the day, Roberto gave up 2 runs, 3 hits, and struck out 4 batters.

Offensively, the Renegades started off to a good start when Jeff Johnson singled with 2 outs and was followed by a double from Braxton Miller. With Jeff at third and Braxton at 2nd, Jeff's brother Zach lifted a long fly ball of the left field wall for a 2 RBI double. After that, Lobo starter JP Willner, would hole the Renegades quite for the remainder of his day.

With the score tied 2-2, Cory Krisman came up big on the bump for Ohlone. In the 9th, Monterey would put runners at 2nd and 3rd with 2 outs but Krisman induced a lazy fly ball to center fielder Cody Foster to end the threat. In the 10th, Monterey would get a lead-off double but Krisman beared down and shut down the Lobo offense again by getting a pop up to right field and two strike outs.

The Renegades broke through in the top of the 11th. Steven Ramos led off with a single to left field. Cody Foster followed with an infield single of his own. The speedy duo then stole third and second base and set the table for the rest of the Renegades. With 1 out, Braxton Miller received an intentional walk and Zach Johnson came to the plate. Zach proceeded to lift a high fly ball to right field. Steven Ramos tagged up at third and applied a nifty slide at the plate to beat the throw and give Ohlone the 3-2 advantage.

Cory Krisman would make quick work of the Lobos in the 11th and Ohlone would leave Monterey with their 6th conference win and their state leading 19th win of the year. Ohlone will now travel to Hartnell College on Tuesday. David Luna will be on the mound for Ohlone and will be looking for his 4th win of the season. Game time is scheduled for 2:00pm.
