

FALL 2004 FACULTY NEW HIRES

Name	Hire Date	Position
------	-----------	----------

Ms. Sheryl Einfalt	7/26/04- 7/31/05	Physical Therapist Assistant Program Instructor/Coordinator
--------------------	---------------------	--

Ms. Einfalt earned her bachelors degree in Physical Education from California State University, Hayward, and her master's degree in Physical Therapy from University of Southern California. She has nearly 14 years of direct physical therapy experience, working in management and in the field with local physical therapists, including owning and operating her own physical therapy business.

Ms. Carmen Solorzano	8/11/04 (Full-Time, Temporary)	Spanish Instructor
----------------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------

Ms. Solorzano earned her bachelor's and master's degrees in Spanish from San Jose State University. She has taught at a local community college and university for the past three and one-half years. Prior to her teaching experience, she was employed as a part-time translator for nearly four years at a local high school and network company.

Ms. Leslie Reiman	8/13/04 (Full-Time, Temporary)	Biology Instructor
-------------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------

Ms. Reiman earned her bachelor's degree in Biological Science from California State University, Stanislaus, and her master's degree in Biological Science from California State University, Hayward. Ms. Reiman was employed on a full-time basis at Canada College for one semester, and also worked on a part-time basis at California State University, Hayward as a Teaching Assistant for four quarters. She was also employed at California State University, Hayward as a part-time Research Assistant.

REVISION

Ms. Amy Mack	FROM 9/2/04	EOPS/CalWorks Counselor (Full-Time, Temporary, Categorically Funded)
	TO 8/18/04	EOPS/CalWorks Counselor (Full-Time, Temporary, Categorically Funded, Fall 2004), AND General Counselor (Full-Time, Temporary, Spring, 2005)

Ms. Mack earned her bachelor's degree in Sociology, and her master's degree in Counseling from California State University, Hayward. Her experience includes two years working as a full-time counselor at San Francisco City College, two years experience working as a part-time Counselor at four local community colleges, and nearly three years of direct industry experience. Most recently, Ms. Mack has worked at Ohlone College as a part-time counselor for the past year.

9/28/04