DATE: July 13, 2005
SUBJECT: Renewal of Alameda County Workforce Investment Board Contract with Tri-Cities One Stop Career Center, Newark

- Consent Agenda

---

On January 12, 2005, the Ohlone College Board approved an amended contract between the Alameda County Workforce Investment Board and the District. A new contract for fiscal year 2006 in the amount of $720,862 is now awarded to the Tri-Cities One Stop Career Center, Newark. The goal of the contract is to assist adults and dislocated workers in obtaining gainful employment through the services provided by the One Stop Career Center, Newark. This contract ends on June 30, 2006.

RECOMMENDATION

The President/Superintendent recommends that the Board of Trustees authorize the President/Superintendent to sign this contract with the Alameda County Workforce Investment Board.
