

ADDENDUM TO MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

The following is an addendum to the November, 2004 Memorandum of Agreement between Aliant International University and Ohlone Community College District:

"The District (with assistance from the college foundation) will reimburse the University for ~~twenty~~ percent <sup>30%</sup> of the discounted cost of tuition each quarter for participants in the doctoral program who are full-time staff or faculty employed by the District and conducting research studies which are directly related to Ohlone College programs and services."

"The University will submit a quarterly statement certifying enrollment of District employees who are eligible to participate. Upon verification of the eligibility list, the District will provide the agreed upon fee reimbursement."
