DATE: August 9, 2006
SUBJECT: Renewal of Alameda County Workforce Investment Board Contract with Tri-Cities One Stop Career Center, Newark

- Consent Agenda

---

On July 6, 2005, the Ohlone College Board approved an amended contract between the Alameda County Workforce Investment Board and the District. A new contract for fiscal year 2007 in the amount of $710,347.00 is now awarded to the Tri-Cities One Stop Career Center, Newark. The goal of the contract is to assist adults and dislocated workers in obtaining gainful employment through the services provided by the One Stop Career Center, Newark. This contract ends on June 30, 2007.

RECOMMENDATION

The President/Superintendent recommends that the Board of Trustees authorize the President/Superintendent to sign this contract with the Alameda County Workforce Investment Board.
