Dear Pam,

It is with mixed emotions that I am writing this letter. I have enjoyed the opportunity of getting to work with you again over the past year. I also can't tell you how much I have appreciate your all of the effort you have put into allowing me to work from home in Colorado and all the support that you provided me through the final stages of my dissertation.

Unfortunately, I found myself with an offer that I cannot pass up... I was offered a faculty position at Utah State University. Having the opportunity to teach in a Deaf Ed Teacher Training program is something I have always dreamed of. While it has been wonderful working with you again, I'm afraid I'm going to have to resign from my position as Outreach Specialist so that I can pursue this dream

Thank you so much for everything you have done! I will continue to work in this position until August and request my last day be August 10th, 2007.

I wish you the best and continued success with GURC.

Thank you so much for your understanding!

All the best,

Debbie Golos
