

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

When making your revisions during course review it is important to take a few extra minutes to review and reflect on your course and whether or not it still meets the current GE Plan A student learning outcomes for the area your course(s) are listed in. If you believe the course reflects the student learning outcomes, please re-affirm and give a rationale and several examples of how your course meets the student learning outcomes for your area of GE Plan A by completing the GE area in CurricUNET. Please do not cut copy and paste the student learning outcomes in as your rationale.

Below are the student learning outcomes for the courses in each of the areas your course(s) are listed on the current Ohlone College GE Plan A.

The courses listed in red are on the current GE Plan A list and will need to go through GE Plan A reaffirmation. The courses listed in blue are not primary to your department and are to be revised by the primary department or collaborated on by both departments.

Your course currently is listed under Area II – Social Science

Area II Social and Behavioral Sciences/American Institutions

Courses in the social and behavioral sciences are those which focus on people as members of society. To satisfy the general education requirement in social and behavioral sciences, a course shall be designed to develop an awareness of the methods of inquiry used by the social and behavioral sciences. It shall be designed to stimulate critical thinking about the ways people act and have acted in response to their societies and should promote appreciation of how societies and social subgroups operate. This category would include introductory or integrative survey courses in cultural anthropology, cultural geography, economics, history, political science, psychology, sociology, and related disciplines. (Title 5)

Upon receipt of an associate degree from Ohlone College, a student will be able to:

1. Distinguish the ways human cultures develop and how people behave within the context of their cultures.
2. Demonstrate an understanding and appreciation of social, political, and economic institutions within a historical perspective.
3. Identify and apply the major theories and methods of inquiry of the social and behavioral sciences to specific cultures and social groups.
