Don’t Ignore Your Family’s Financial Security…
Long Term Care Insurance is one of the best ways to protect it

Community College Employees receive EXCLUSIVE PREMIUM DISCOUNTS for this new Voluntary Long Term Care program.

Long Term Care Insurance is one of the most important considerations for your family’s future financial security. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services recently reported that 70% of Americans age 65 and older will need Long Term Care. Without the right protection, most people are unprepared for these major expenses – which are not covered by Medicare or health insurance.
