NOVEMBER

10 Men's Soccer -- 3 p.m.

At Ohlone, versus DeAnza College.

10-12 The Laramie Project -- 8 p.m. in The Smith Center.

Written by Moises Kaufman. Produced and directed by Mark Nelson. The savage beating of a young gay man bound to a fence and left to die in the hills outside Laramie, Wyoming, in 1998 was a shocking act of brutality. His death became a national symbol of intolerance, but for the people of Laramie the event was deeply personal. In this stunningly effective theatre piece it is their voices we hear as the cast portrays more than sixty different local personalities and, using their own words, explore the depths and heights of humanity.
