

FEBRUARY

10 Women's Basketball -- 7 p.m. Versus San Jose City College at Ohlone.

10-28 Be My Valentine Art Show -- The ever-popular Valentine show returns this year in the Louie-Meager Art Gallery.

11 Ohlone College Super Flea Market. Free admission, $2 per car for parking. Vendor spaces are $30. All proceeds support Ohlone College programs.

12 Ohlone Cash for College for High School Students and Parent Workshop -- 11 a.m. in Hyman Hall. Help pay for your college next year by getting an early start at the 3rd Annual Ohlone Cash For College. Co-sponsored by Ohlone College Financial Aid Office, California Student Aid Commission and Assemblyman Alberto Torico, this workshop will help you complete the first step toward obtaining all the financial aid resources available. This event is open to all high school seniors attending Ohlone College or elsewhere in Fall 2006.

14 Free and Anonymous HIV Testing -- In the Health Center, Building 16 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. No appointments are necessary.

14 Sexual Responsibility Week/National Condom Day -- In the Quad with representatives from Tri-City Health Center and the Ohlone

College Student Health Center. Games, prizes, and True Love packets.

14 True Love Sponsored by the Muslim Student Association -- 11:45 a.m. -1:30 p.m., in the Quad. Free event with speaker Yahya Rhodus. Pizza, refreshments and interpreter provided.

14 Gay/Straight Alliance Club Meeting -- In the Smith Center, Room SC-116, from 3 to 4 p.m.

14 Locke Heemstra: Dream Tours -- Ongoing in the Smith Center. Travel locations and romantic landscapes in Greece, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Hawaii and most recently, Florence are photographed on site with a "4 x 5 camera" which are exhibited as large-size giclee prints on stretched canvas. Crisp details, bright color and Heemstra's aesthetic bring a fresh view to seemingly familiar yet far away exotic sites.

17-20 President's Day Holiday -- No classes.

21 In Memory of Malcolm X Sponsored by the Muslim Student Association -- 11:45 a.m. -1 p.m., in the Quad. Free event with speaker Abdul Malik Ali. Refreshments and interpreter provided.

22 Locke Heemstra: Workshop -- Noon to 1:30 p.m., in the Smith Center. Locke Heemstra, photographer displayed in the Louie Meager

Gallery, will give a workshop sharing his experience in actually making a living via his artwork. This event is free.

25 Circus Center: Performance -- 8 p.m., in the Smith Center. Performances of Circus Center combine the fine arts, including dance, theater, music and film, with high-energy circus acts as a way of expanding the definitions of these art forms. Highly imaginative and evocative, the blending of these art forms brings accessible high culture to American audiences, which have warmly embraced the fusion of fine art with popular tradition. Student tickets are $15, and adult tickets are $25. Available at the box office.

28 World Forum: The Palestinian Bazian -- Noon, in the Eppler Gymnasium. Dr. Hatem Bazian from U.C. Berkeley, a specialist in Islamic Law and Jerusalem's Islamic history presents the Palestinian perspective.
