A World of Cultures
United in Learning

I won't need anyone's help.
I can do it on my own.

With that degree, it's gonna give me more opportunity so I can make more money. I'm already working with human resources- how to deal with people, codes of conduct, loyalty, ethics, the hiring process, paperwork...

A Job is just a job. A career is something that you worked for. I feel better as a person now. I feel more accomplished.

Michelle Oquendo, DeVry University '08
Technical Management

Since 1975, 227,605 undergraduate students system-wide graduated from DeVry University and 90% of those in the active job market were employed in career-related positions within 6 months of graduation.

If you have some college, you can complete your bachelor's degree in DeVry University's accelerated courses. Classes start soon, so discover the education that is helping Michelle build a future she can be proud of.
