

Spring sports produces two conference champs

From top left, clockwise, the champs in softball and basketball. Conference champ Kelly Colker winds and delivers in the semi-regional playoffs. Alpha N'Diaye lowers his shoulder to get to the rim against Fresno in the Sweet 16, after winning the Coast-North Conference champion. Amarildo Matos zig-zags right to left throughout the paint to finish with his left hand against Skyline College. Cassandra Ortega picks a low throw in the dirt and shows the umpire her acquisition. Christina Dixon plays tight defense in the City College of San Francisco game against one of the state's top scorers. Kat Roman keeps her hands inside a pitch to pick up a double. Photos by the Monitor staff and contributors.

