Ohlone sends Chabot home with loss

The Lady Renegades volleyball team was able to capture a conference victory Friday at Epler Gymnasium on the Fremont campus defeating Chabot College 3-0.

Ohlone is now 8-5 overall and 2-1 in Coast Conference South play.

"The difference in intensity was clearly evident, but I thought we did a good job of staying consistent and not playing to the pace of Chabot," coach Jeremy Penaflor said.

The Gladiators were able to keep the opening set close before Ohlone was able to pull away and close it out by a final of 25-21.

The Lady Renegades were able to control the final two sets, imposing their will on Chabot and dominating, doubling the score with a final point count of 50-25.

Sophomores Emily Marden, Brittany Creel, Taylor Presley and Jackkie Class have been solid all year, resulting in a formidable record.

"Emily has been a huge player throughout the season, setting anything that comes her way for her hitters," Marden said.

"It is a lot of fun," Marden is a vocal leader on the court as well.

"We really struggled in the beginning before Ohlone really put forth by Ohlone and despite a great effort put forth by Ohlone," Kendall said.

"We had a poor warm-up and it really showed in the beginning before we got things together," Kendall said.

"Things definitely got better for Ohlone," Kendall said.

"We really struggled in the first quarter and gave up way too many goals," Kendall said.

"Things definitely got better for Ohlone," Kendall said.

"Come on! Let's go!"

"Yeah!"

Lady Renegade Brittney Kinney passes to an open teammate.

Continued on page 7