Guy’s Players of the Week

Softball’s Haley Keahi and baseball’s Elias Bedolla are my players of the week.

The Lady Renegades won their only game this past week 16-9 against De Anza – you’d think they were playing football with that score.

Keahi went four for five with three RBIs on two singles, a triple and a home run. She also had a steal.

She’s having a phenomenal season, leading the team in hits, home runs, RBIs and doubles.

Baseball pitcher Elias Bedolla helped the Renegades break their recent two-game losing streak, winning 6-2 Tuesday against De Anza.

He pitched seven innings, allowing one earned run and striking out three.

In 12 starts this season he has pitched 69.1 innings, compiling a 6-2 record, 2.99 ERA and 45 strikeouts.

SPORTS TWEET OF THE WEEK

“PELICAN’T HOLD A LEAD”
@LOLKNBR

Local sports radio KNBR’s parody account pokes fun that the Pelicans couldn’t hold the lead against the Warriors. The Warriors currently have a 2-0 lead over the Pelicans in their first-round playoff matchup.
