Courses for Grades 2nd and 3rd

WRITING WONDERS (Grades 2nd and 3rd)

This unique course offers children the opportunity to engage in a variety of word games and writing exercises designed to awaken their creative passions and instill confidence in their ability to generate ideas for the page. During the nine week program, children will learn that writing is not a stiff, structured subject, but a vital and powerful means for self-expression. That is, they'll learn that writing is fun, and something they CAN do.

There will be TWO sections of the Writing Wonders class. One section will be for 2nd graders only; the other will be for 3rd graders only.

Writing Wonders 2nd Grade: Wednesdays during the district's early release days.

Time: 1:20 PM – 2:20 PM

Date: Wednesdays, April 14, 2010 – June 2, 2010. Room: 23

Writing Wonders 3rd Grade: Wednesdays during the district's early release days.

Time: 1:20 PM – 2:20 PM

Date: Wednesdays, April 14, 2010 – June 2, 2010. Room: 24

Instructor for 3rd grade class: Shari Wargo

Instructor for 2nd grade class: Jay Kontilis

Courses for Grades 4th, 5th and 6th

Journalism (Grade 4 - 6)

Is there a news reporter inside your child looking for an opportunity to write? In this class students will learn the skills needed to plan, research, and write articles for an online school newspaper. Along the way we will explore the difference between opinion and fact, discuss the rights and responsibilities of journalists, and of course, learn ways to improve our writing.

Journalism class will be held on Tuesdays.

Time: 3 PM – 4 PM

Date: Tuesdays, April 13, 2010 – June 1, 2010

Room: 24

Instructor: Robert Brickner
