  4. Program/Departments: Campus Activities (69601)
  5. Authority Code: 82-Director, EOPS, CARE, Calworks
  6. External Regulations: Yes No X
  7. Provide a brief narrative that describes the services provided.

Campus Activities provides opportunities for students to participate in collegiate life by providing educational, cultural, and social activities. Campus Activities offers practical skills development training (ex. time management, organizational skills), leadership activities and challenges, interaction with diverse ideas and populations, and stimulates critical thinking/problem solving. All programs & activities are open to all Faculty, Staff, Students & Administration.

8. Describe how the program specifically serves students, faculty and staff.

STUDENTS

Provides events & activities that are educational, empowering and create a sense of community.

Provides leadership training & lifelong learning skills that foster teamwork, communication and ability to think critically.

Provides and supports culturally relevant events & activities that promote diversity and tolerance across the institution.

Provide facilitation & administration for the organization of student all clubs & ICC.

FACULTY/STAFF

Work collaboratively with academic departments and other campus programs in providing events & activities.

STAFF

Built collaborations while providing extended resources, creativity and support to divisional departments in an effort to create more impactful, wide-reaching programming.

9. Describe how the program or service needs are addressed (how the program/service accomplishes what it's supposed to do.) How are current technologies applied?

- Consults programming board, comprised of students, who assists with creating, coordinating and staffing events and activities.
- Collaborate with faculty and staff to create and support events and activities.
- Current technologies are applied through the use of surveys and social media networking.
- We do research of other campuses and do a comparison/contrast of their activities against our own.
- Utilize educational resources that are focused on programming for colleges.

10. Discuss the impact of the program on the college and/or other programs. Highlight any services, reports or functions supplied, in whole or in part, by this service area that supports state or federal compliance mandates for the College.

Constitution Day is a federal mandate that requires colleges to educate students about the constitution. This is a fun and interactive event that engages student to familiarize themselves about the Constitution and its properties.

Provides for student leadership, in the form of the Associated Student Body. The impact is the student's opportunity to have a voice in the shared governance process. In addition, the college is represented at the regional & state level of the Student Senate California Community Colleges (SSCCC).

Provide for student leadership and campus and community involvement in the form of the Inter-Club Council (ICC). The impact of the program on the college is students are given the opportunity to contribute to the campus environment and beyond, by organizing groups based on their interests. In addition, student club members coordinate events and activities with other clubs and promote cooperation between clubs. The ICC serves as a forum of expression for clubs on any matters considered to be important to them.

11. Discuss the impact of the program on the community and the impact of the community on the program.

- ID Discount program allows us to collaborate with local businesses, by providing advertisement, and discounts to students. We also offer the businesses an opportunity to have access to the college community.

- The Alameda County Food Bank canned food drive is a two month campaign to mobilize students to donate canned food in bins placed around campus. Every month, tens of thousands of Alameda County residents rely on the Food Bank for nutritious food resources. Students’ donations help provide low-income families and individuals with emergency food assistance and the most invaluable resource of all, hope.

- The League of Women Voters and the Associated Student of Ohlone College joined together to register students to vote and educate students about the election and propositions. The League is one of the nation’s largest and most longstanding voter registration groups. League volunteers help hundreds of thousands register or update their registration each election year, focusing on reaching underrepresented groups such as young voters, minorities and first-time voters.

- Collaborated with All The Way Live to support and promote the Urban Dance Festival. All The Way Live utilizes dance as a means to reach out to underprivileged and at-risk youth in marginalized communities, working to fill the gaps left by public institutions with a safe environment to develop and create self-expression through dance. Our after school programs and urban arts workshops work to offer youth creative and positive alternatives to gang and crime-related activities that are prevalent in their communities. Our teachers also act as mentors and help guide our participants through their creative dance journey, as well as their journey through life by striving to foster leadership and life skills.

- The ASOC and ICC provide funding for various community events and/or activities that involve students.

- The program encourages and supports the ASOC and ICC to partner with community organizations.
