5. Assessment strategy or tool used in the assessment. (Describe below, and if applicable copy/paste any additional related documents at end of this form (i.e. Rubric, score sheet, test questions, essay assignment, etc.)

Monitor staff members took part in news meetings to brainstorm story, photo and graphic ideas, and to discuss possible ways in which photos or graphics could be used to complement stories. Each staff member was assigned at least one story, photo or graphic per issue (10 per semester).
NOTE: This will usually consist of things you are already using to evaluate student work, i.e. Final Exam questions, Final Essay, Final Presentation or Culminating Project, other Assignments, Portfolio Evaluation, Performance Assessment, Department Testing, Pre and Post Tests, Vendor or Industry Certification Examinations, Indirect Assessments (Student Surveys, Focus Group Discussions, Interviews), etc.

6. Specific aspects of the assessment tool which link up to specific Course SLOs being assessed (i.e. Which specific test questions measured which Course SLOs? Note: May describe with #5 above):

See No. 5.

7. Results and analysis of the data. (Explain below and if applicable copy/paste any related documents, i.e. spreadsheets with data, at the end of this document.)

Both students who signed up for JOUR-171 completed at least one assignment per issue, or 10 for the semester. They completed additional stories and photos for the Monitor website, and designed pages for the print edition. In all, 14 of the 16 staff members (87.5 percent) completed at least one assignment per issue.

8. Describe any faculty dialogue that occurred as part of the assessment process (i.e. Were results shared at a department meeting? Was there discussion about changing any SLOs? Etc.):

None.

9. Next steps (i.e. any planned revisions to curriculum or teaching strategies to promote student success, future assessment plans, etc.):

None.

10. Results of implemented changes, if available at this time:
