- Students who are not US citizens and do not enter their information on the application in a thorough manner, may be asked to provide additional information prior to registration. This is to ensure the college complies with all applicable federal and state regulations regarding enrollment eligibility.

2. Student Records

- Dual Enrollment is the first step in a student's college career. Grades and units earned through the Dual Enrollment Program become a permanent part of the student's academic record and are reflected on the official transcript. Grades and units earned can affect future applications for financial aid and college or university applications. Students should seek the guidance of their high school counselor and parent or guardian prior to registration.
- Parents and guardians should not contact instructors for information on a student's progress—students are expected to conduct their own business and to relay needful information to their parents/guardians.
- The college record for any student falls under the Federal Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), even when that student is under 18 and attending college through a Dual program. Only the student or a person with a written and signed waiver may access the student's record. This includes registration information, schedules, grades, units, and any information that does not fall under the directory category. To review FERPA guidelines, go here: FERPA

*You can find the release of information waiver here: Release of Information Waiver
Please note that even with a tax return to show dependence, a student signature will be required.

3. Student Responsibilities

- Students must act on their own behalf—this includes but is not limited to completing their own online application and permission packet, contacting instructors, registering classes, maintaining their course schedule, and completing classwork for registered courses. They are required to abide by all college policies including the student code of conduct posted in the course schedule, catalog, and on the Ohlone website here: Student Code of Conduct
- No additional supervision is provided before, during, or after class. Parents or guardians are responsible for their student before and after class, and for all transportation needs.
- The community college is an adult learning environment and reflects a diverse community of learners. Discussion topics and course materials are generally designed for adult students and may not be appropriate to younger students. Course content will not be changed to accommodate minors.
- Students are responsible for their course books and materials. They must report to the first day of class with books and materials per the course syllabus and/or instructor. Students are expected to be aware of assignment deadlines, course tools, and other information made available by the instructor for completion of a class.
- Students are responsible for being aware of add and drop deadlines, the academic calendar, and other information contained on the Ohlone College website, the class schedule, and the course catalog.
