Anne E. Golseth Excellence in Student Leadership Scholarship

In honor of Anne Golseth, former Vice President of Student Services and her leadership while serving at Ohlone College, the Ohlone College Foundation is offering one scholarship of $750. Preference will be given to students who will complete an A.A. from Ohlone College or will be transferring to a B.A. granting institution and have demonstrated community service (these are preferences and will not disqualify you from the scholarship).

To apply for this scholarship, you must:

- Demonstrate leadership services.
- Be currently enrolled in 12 units or more.
- Have completed at least 30 units, but no more than 90 units.
- Have a GPA of 2.5 or above.
- Have a valid ASOC ID card for the term in which the student applies.
- Describe leadership service you have through serving on the Associated Students of Ohlone College, as an active member of Ohlone College Club, or with a community group.

Application Period: December 20, 2021 - March 2, 2022
