STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

Kevin Zheng, China
UCLA, Business Economics
As an international student who had a poor English foundation, Ohlone really helped me fit into the new environment. The mentor program has let me meet one of my most important friends in my life, who is a faculty member of the school. He has showed me so many aspects of the American life and has played a key role in helping me adapt to the western culture.
I came to the U.S. with many goals, goals beyond a college degree. California is a diverse state, and that reflects on my daily life in Ohlone. I’ve met friends coming from different parts of the world and gotten to experience many things outside the classroom, such as clubs and student government. I’ve known almost all the counselors; they are more like friends than school faculty to me and I had so much fun working with them. Even later, after I transferred to UCLA, I would often come back to visit Ohlone and its lovely community.

Eisqil Hazamuddin, Malaysia
University of Michigan, Engineering
Ohlone College has helped me a lot in terms of my education. All of my instructors and classmates are approachable and helpful in making everything I learned in my classes more understandable which lead to my successful grades. Other than that, Ohlone College also assisted me in my self-growth. The people here are very welcoming, friendly and never hesitate to help me with any problem that I encountered especially people in International Programs and Services and Counseling Department. The skills that I developed in Ohlone College have helped me in transferring to University of Michigan easily. Ohlone College has made my first experience abroad in the States more valuable and remarkable.

Rong Huang, China
UC Berkeley, Computer Science
Studying at Ohlone College was one of the most incredible experiences I’ve ever had! At Ohlone, not only have I gained a lot of knowledge from various interesting and challenging courses, but also I have learned incredible lessons for life. Advisors and professors always try to discover the full potential of me and teach me how to become a better person. As an international student who lives far away from home and family, Ohlone really made me feel welcomed and loved. Thanks Ohlone for inspiring me and challenging me to achieve who I am today!

Farima Kone Kito, Burkina Faso
UC Davis, Communications
Coming all the way from Western Africa, the first months in Northern California were rough. However, the people I had the chance to meet at Ohlone College helped ease this transition from one continent to another. Ohlone taught me the importance of community and helped me in the process of acquiring the skills needed to achieve my life goals and I will forever be grateful for that.
