Education Code Sections 76063-76065; ASB Accounting Manual

Associated Student Funds are maintained in accordance with the following procedures:

- Associated Student Organization Fund books, financial records and procedures shall comply with the ASB Accounting Manual and are subject to annual audit.
- Reports of the annual audit of A. S. funds are submitted to the Board of Trustees.
- Audit information, except that containing personnel or other confidential information, shall be released to the Associated Students and the designated advisor by the Business Services Division Office.
- Associated Student funds shall be deposited with and disbursed by the Business Services Division Office.

The funds shall be deposited, loaned or invested in [insert depository and/or investments, which must be one or more of the following ways authorized by law]:

- Deposits in trust accounts of the centralized State Treasury System pursuant to Government Code Sections 16305 - 16305.7 or in a bank or banks whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
- Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in state-chartered savings and loan associations and savings accounts of federal savings and loan associations, if the associations are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation and if any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by the insurance.
- Purchase of any of the securities authorized for investment by Government Code Section 16430 or investment by the Treasurer in those securities.
- Participation in funds that are exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and that are open exclusively to nonprofit colleges, universities, and independent schools.
- Investment certificates or withdrawable shares in federal or state credit unions, if the credit unions are doing business in this state and have their accounts insured by the National Credit Union Administration and if any money so invested or deposited is invested or deposited in certificates, shares, or accounts fully covered by the insurance.
- Loans, with or without interest, to any student body organization established in another community college of the District for a period not to exceed three years.

- Investment of money in permanent improvements to any community college District property including, but not limited to, buildings, automobile parking facilities, gymnasiums, swimming pools, stadia and playing fields, where those facilities, or portions thereof, are used for conducting student extracurricular activities or student spectator sports, or when those improvements are for the benefit of the student body.

All funds shall be expended subject to such procedures as may be established by the Associated Students subject to the approval of each of the following three persons. Approval shall be obtained each time before any funds may be expended:

- The Vice President of Student Services, who serves as the President/Superintendent's designee,
- The Director of Student Life, who serves as the designated advisor, and
- The President of the ASOC or the designated representative of the student body organization.
