Purpose of the Club: We are a club designed for students to explore the field of web design and development. Throughout the journey of our club, we aim to gather people with similar interests and develop our web programming skills.

Anticipated club activities for the semester: Throughout the year, we are planning to hold lectures to educate new members, workshops for project planning and research, lectures from guest speakers, events to collaborate and connect with people to create personal projects, and a large project that requires club collaboration.

CLUB MEMBERS SECTION: You are responsible for ensuring that your club knows and adheres to ICC policies and procedures, and relevant District polices as stated in the Ohlone Catalog, Schedule of Classes and ICC Handbook. Please note: each club MUST have a designated Treasurer and President or ICC Representative.
