https://sogoreate-landtrust.org/lisjan-history-and-territory/

Ohlone College Land Occupation:
Nation: Ohlone
Territory: Huchiun
Tribe: Lisjan
Language: Chochenyo

“Costanoan” is an inaccurate label used and created Spanish-colonizers. The Lisjan are made up of the 7 tribes who were enslaved at Mission San Jose in Fremont, CA and Mission Dolores in San Francisco: Lisjan (Ohlone), Karkin (Ohlone), Bay Miwok, Plains Miwok, Wappo, Delta Yokut, and Napian (Patwin). This territory spans over the counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Solano, Napa, and San Joaquin.

Land acknowledgement is short optional statement given at the beginning of events to show respect and acknowledge indigenous people’s lands. Grace has come up with a possible script to read at the beginning of events and meetings:

“We live and go to school on the stolen land of the Muwekma-Ohlone nation.

We support them in their fight for government recognition and acknowledge Tribal governments and their roles today in taking care of these lands.

We recognize the irony of being in an educational institution while oppressing indigenous experiences. While we gain power through education and continue to prop up these institutions, we must also work towards tearing down these systems and working towards rematriation and reindigenization of the land.

As we learn, we will use our knowledge towards giving up our power and space to Indigenous communities.”
