

This Week On The Ohlone eCampus

June 29 – July 5, 2020

Minimum Qualifications Trainings (MQT)

We've opened a NEW session that will meet on Fri/Sat, July 17/18 from 10:00 – 1:30. If you have already registered for a session but prefer this time, email eCampus. If you have not yet registered, you may register here.

MQT Sessions Take a Holiday this Week

No Training sessions this week due to the holiday (July 2). We hope you will take advantage of the Make It Take It sessions taking place Monday through Thursday this week instead.

Make It – Take It Sessions this Week

Hands on workshops that will demonstrate a topic and then provide time for you to apply what you have learned with a trainer standing by to help if you encounter problems. You “make it” and then “take it” with you to your Canvas course shell.

Notes from Mary

Instructure, owner of Canvas, has rolled out several feature updates in the past two months:

1. Ability to copy modules.
2. New Rich Content Editor (RCE) can be enabled on a course by course basis. The old editor will be disabled by Instructure on 12/19/2020.
3. Notifications can be muted on a course by course basis.
4. Microsoft Immersive Reader for Canvas pages is on for a trial period.

As we approach the July 4 historic celebration of the United States, I'd like to share a historic look at distance education at Ohlone College. This 1975 Ohlone Dial-a-class flyer was kindly shared by librarian, Jenny Schmidt. You'll see that it promotes learning from your home "or car" and refers to "professors-in-residence" as well as the mailing of textbooks. It's a blast from the past that sounds very much like today!

Have a great holiday weekend!
