Description
Bill initiating a virtual alumni transfer panel open to all Ohlone students.

2020-21 ASOC President’s Signature:_____________________________________

Upon approval by the Senate, shall be signed by the Chair of the Senate.
ARTICLE I: Full Description
Section 1.1 Bill Description: The purpose of this bill is to give Ohlone students the opportunity to have a Q&A session with Ohlone alumni in order to have a better understanding of the college transfer process.
Section 1.2 Full Description of Event: The following students will be presenting for the Ohlone Panel: Luke Zakedis studying Political Science with Emphasis in Government and International Relations at UCLA, Jonathan Wang studying history at UCLA, Martin Kludjian Jr. studying Political Science with Emphasis in data analysis at UCSD, Jaclyn Ferreira studying Criminal Justice with Minor in Legal Studies at SJSU, Phoebe Pham studying Political Science and Legal Studies at UC Berkeley, Tiffany Dang studying Human Biology at UCLA, and Nitya Goyal studying Computer Science at UC Berkeley. These presenters will provide a brief overview of their transfer experience, including time spent at Ohlone, the application process, and life after transfer, following a Q&A session from event participants. Sabrina Panjwani, Eunice Chan, Cat Simon, Haru Tsuchiya, and Amanda Lau will be present at the event to coordinate, admit people from the waiting room, place participants into breakout rooms, as well as ask questions to the panelists.

ARTICLE II: Mission Statement
Section 2.1: The mission of this event is to help Ohlone students have a better understanding of the transfer process to UCs and CSUs and increase Ohlone student success.

ARTICLE III: Timeline
Section 3.1 Length/Size: The event is scheduled to be about an hour long. It will be open to all Ohlone students, with an expectation of at least 30 attendees.
Section 3.2 Location/Time: The event will take place virtually via Zoom on Friday, November 20, 2020 from 4pm to 5pm.
Section 3.3 Advertising: Prior to the event, the Alumni Panel will be advertised on Canvas as well as the ASOC’s Instagram page.

ARTICLE IV: Goals and Objectives
Section 4.1: To provide valuable information for Ohlone students looking to transfer, especially those applying to UCs and CSUs this year.
Section 4.2: To demonstrate successful transfer experiences of past Ohlone students from different majors and schools.

ARTICLE V: Funding Options
Section 5.1: No funding necessary as panel participants are active alumni volunteering to share their experiences.

ARTICLE VI: Enactment Date:
Section 6.1: The date of Ohlone College’s Alumni Panel is finalized for November 20, 2020 from 4pm to 5pm.
